

DEPARTMENT OF BIO-TECHNOLOGY

Vision:

The Department of Biotechnology has to be with the highest quality of innovative technologies which can address the challenges and needs for the holistic development of the nation. The application of its research and development should reach all the stakeholders of the society for their well-being.

Mission:

To provide the graduates with the knowledge based skills needed for high quality of innovative technology as well as advanced research in the field of Biotechnology and to make them potential with a broad spectrum of knowledge in order to prepare them for diverse and competitive careers in research and application

Objectives:

The Biotechnology was established in the year 2005 with the following objectives:-

- To develop academic excellence in the field of Biotechnology to cater the need of modern Industry.
- To provide experienced professionals in various laboratory techniques and sophisticated analytical instruments and offering placement training.
- Motivating students to involve in research activities during the course of studies and encourage them to perceive higher education.

FACULTY:

Smt. Anuradha.K., Sri.H.Jayaprakash Goud, Sri.Mallana Gouda.G.